

Yext – Content Moderation Transparency Disclosure – February 2025

Yext confirms the following for the period 17 February 2024-31 December 2024 in respect of its intermediary services where the provider is established in, and/or targeting, the EU.

Item	Yext disclosure
Orders received from Member State authorities including orders to act against illegal content, or to provide information about service recipients	None
Valid notices submitted through Yext's Content and Reporting Centre which relate to content provided by a service recipient and hosted by Yext	None
Own-initiative content moderation engaged in by Yext	None
Complaints received through internal complaint-handling systems	Not applicable
Any use of automated means for the purpose of content moderation	None

Date of publication: February 2025